“Raising a Young Adolescent in Today's World is not an easy thing to do.” O'Maley Innovation Middle School is committed to doing all it can guide both young and old through this important phase of life. With that in mind, we have scheduled two free workshops for parents.

The first one was held on Tuesday, January 29th, “Growing up Male in America”.

The second workshop will be held the following Tuesday, February 5th, also from 6:30 to 8:00 PM. This workshop is entitled, “Growing up Female in America”. Some of the topics of this session include: The Girl Code, Girls and the Media, Girls and Schooling, Parent Relationships and a segment called Daughters of the Revolution (a look at the future for girls).

The presenter is Joann Stemmerman. She is an expert in gender as it relates to adolescents. There will be plenty of time for questions and answers and sharing of common experiences.
