Who's the Boss? Executive Functioning in School Age Children –

Join us for a workshop with Rebecca Wetter (O'Maley School Psychologist) and Sandy Theodorou (Veterans' Memorial School Psychologist). They will be hosting a workshop on Wednesday, April 2nd at 6:30pm at Pathways for Children, 29 Emerson Avenue. Sponsored by the Gloucester Special Education Parent Advisory Council (SEPAC).

Ever wonder what O'Maley looks like during the day? Are you curious about what an Innovation school is? What is the STEM lab?

All those answers and more can be discovered during the O'Maley Innovation Middle School tour. Next Tour - Tuesday, April 15th from 8 – 9 a.m. The tour begins and ends in the O'Maley library with coffee and pastries with Principal Debra Lucey. Guidance counselors and students will conduct the tours of selected classrooms, the O'Maley STEM suite, cafeteria and auditorium.

If you are interested in attending, please call 978-281-9850 to reserve your space.

Regarding Washington DC.... By this time next week our 8th graders will be on the third day of their exciting trip to Washington DC. There will be a student assembly on Monday afternoon to go over trip details. You will also find attached to this email, the parent information sheet that was given to students a week or so ago. Those interested can follow the trip by logging onto the O'Maley Web Site and choosing O'Maley Twitter from the menu on the left.

We have extended the deadline for current 7th graders to sign up for next year's trip. Please be enrolled by April 8th. Any questions can be directed to Mr. Strong
