

Students of the Month – November 2017

6th grade

Harbor House - Katelyn Chepulis - Katelyn is always, always so kind to classmates. She also never gives up and is always willing to try something new. Her conscientious character was quite evident when she made an extreme effort to go over big hurdles in order to participate in the Holiday Showcase last week. A true model O'Maley citizen, Katelyn ALWAYS has a smile for everyone she encounters!

Boat House - Kaleigh Cooke - Kaleigh has an amazing work ethic and her academic success reflects this. She is very conscientious and strives to understand things in the classroom, setting a great example for her peers. She is someone who is also extremely respectful and truly personifies what the SAILS values are all about as a wonderful role model and quiet leader.

Light House - Sophia Silveria - Sophia is one of those students who will help anybody and she is so very thoughtful. She is positive and has great energy that really rubs off on others! Her bright smile lights up a room. She also works very hard at her studies. Sophia has participated in SAILS crew since the start of the school year and is making a big effort to make O'Maley awesome!

---

7th grade

Phoenix House 315 Marissa Numerosi - Marissa has consistently tries to go above and beyond in improving her school work! She works extra hard to reach all her goals and is a great asset to her classes. In addition, Marissa is one of the kindest members of Phoenix House; she is a role model for the SAILS value of ACCEPTANCE!

Beauport House 302 Madison Burns - Madison was a professional and very thorough researcher in her PBL with the veterinarian. She always completes her work on time and she takes pride in a job well done! She has great INTEGRITY and is a valuable class member!

Dirigo House 310 Ian Buchanan - Ian exhibits quiet, but stellar SAILS qualities. He's attentive, kind, courteous, polite and always without failure offers the best of his best no matter what academic challenge he faces -- whether it's in ELA or math. Congratulations Ian for modeling the qualities of SAILS.

8th grade

Ocean House - The Ocean House student of the month is Alexia Burby - Alexia is a kind and attentive student. She makes other better, and always exceeds expectations. She is a quiet leader and not afraid to ask questions. Alexia will have great success is high school.

Anchor House - Tori Bjorgan - Tori is a conscientious student who works extremely hard and seeks out ways to improve. She is kind and respectful and makes smart choices on a daily basis.

Beach House - The Beach House student of the month is Lily Dukette. Lily is a great student who always participates and works well in groups. She is a leader and models great classroom behavior. Her quality of work is outstanding and she always rises to every academic challenge.