

Students of the Month – October 2016

6th grade

202 - Olivia McBain - Harbor House is proud to have Olivia as one of its members! She perseveres through difficult work with a positive, hardworking attitude. She is a happy young lady who shows the SAILS value of ACCEPTANCE because she is always kind to everyone!

220 - Madalyn Wheeler - Maddy is a perfect example of the SAILS value of SERVICE! She is the most helpful student in Light House. No task is too big for her to take on! She helps her teachers and classmates with patience and kindness; she is a role model for caring!

204 - Nick Koros - Nick is a role model for the SAILS value of INTEGRITY! He always does what's right and shows others the importance of hard work and being an upstanding community member! He's kind to others and is always ready to jump in and be helpful to students and staff!

7th grade

Phoenix:

Jack Costanzo is a kind and thoughtful student. He is supportive of his partners and group members during classwork. Jack is quick with a smile for teachers, staff and his peers. Keep up the great effort and vibe as we start term 2!

Dirigo:

Isabelle Nixon. Isabelle is a diligent, conscientious worker who tries her best in all of her classes, resulting in a great level of SUCCESS. She is also helpful to others and gets along with everyone, modeling SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, and ACCEPTANCE. Isabelle is pleasure to have in class and an asset to the Dirigo community.

Beauport:

Raunak Anand: Raunak is an excellent student and shows strong leadership qualities. He is a very kind person, treating everyone with respect. He sets a great example with his positive attitude and demonstrates a mastery of the content.

8th grade

Anchor House - Joshua Benjamin - Josh works extremely hard all day every day. He is beyond diligent and sets such a good example of using INTEGRITY. Josh is so very kind and ACCEPTING. And you can always depend on Josh for the most accurate weather forecast! He provides a great SERVICE by keeping us informed.

Ocean House - Thomas Glenn - Thomas has such a great questioning mind and he is truly insightful. Because of his ACCEPTANCE he is someone who will work with anyone and always brings them up. He also sticks up for others and is a true LEADER in this way. Thomas is someone who takes risks and they are positive risks. He really stands out in this way.

Beach House - Abigail Lane - Abigail is a true joy to have in class and she is a great contributor to the O'Maley community. She always participates and always takes a chance, a LEADER by example. She goes above and beyond by sending information to teachers that can enhance a lesson. She always devoted many hours to the DC bake sale when she wasn't even required to do so. Abigail shows what SERVICE is all about. And she is an awesome addition to SAILS club this year!
